THE WEATHER.

The daily record of the thermometer in this city for yesterday, as kept at C. W. Brandon's drug store, was: 7 a. m., 50 degrees above; 12 m., 69 degrees above; 4 p. m., 76 degrees above; 8 p. m., 72 degrees

ABOUT THE CITY.

Rev. Galen Wood of Butte will preach at the Christian church here this evening.

Rev. Mr. Clyde will make the subject of his discourse this evening at the Presby-terian church the death of Frank Neal.

Rev. Dr. Snider, presiding elder of the Montana district M. E. church, was in the city yesterday, the guest of Rev. Mr. Lowry.

To-day the Swedish people of Anaconda and surrounding country will hold a pic-nic at Seile's ranch. The music will be furnished by the Anaconda Brass band, and there is every promise of a first-class time. There will be dancing afternoon and evening.

Word was received from St. Louis of the death on the 23d inst. of Henry Clague, uncle of the Clague brothers of this city. He was with General Mead many years or the survey of the lakes. When they were finished he was transferred to St. Louis, where he remained in continuous office for 23 years. He was born on the Isle of Man 60 years ago.

Work on the club house at the park is progressing rapidly, a large number of of carpenters being employed. No doubt a large crowd will be out to Anaconda's restful retreat to-day, as the trees and grass look lovely after the rains of the past week. The Anaconda brass band will give a dance at the pavilion this after-

Anaconda park was never in finer condition than it is now. The trees were never so green, the entire grounds were never so attractive. The break around the dam has been repaired, and everything has been rendered high and dry. The spot where the water overflowed last Sunday night was remedied immediately and there is not the slightest danger of any more wet grounds. The park is in its

Officer McManus run in four as tough looking burns as ever hit an Anaconda back door yesterday afternoon. Two of them are charged with stealing. They gave their names as J. Morley, Tug Wilson, P. Keily and T. Morau. One of them, and the less hardened looking, had a very sore arm, erysipelas probably, and asked the officer if he would get a doctor to treat

Paddy Lee, champion 142-pound boxer of the United States navy, writes a letter to the sporting editor of the STANDARD in which he alleges that there are rumors floating around Anaconda to the effect that he met and was bested in Portland. Ore., by one Gallagher. Paddy says he never saw the said Gallagher in his life until be came to Anaconda, and that the match between himself and Gallagher was broken off without his knowledge or con-

The funeral of little Frank P. Neal was held yesterday afternoon from the family residence, No. 414 Cherry street. The pall bearers were Eddy Triol, Eddy Shovlin, Joe La Ponte, Harry Ball, Willie Maban and Ray Mahan. The members of the Juvenile temperance society and 75 children from the Chestnut street school in charge of Mrs. Park and Miss McDonald, their teachers, were present. The Rev. Mr. Clyde efficiated and the choir of the Presbyterian church sang both at the house and at the services at the grave. The attendance was very large.

Burglars, Murderers and Hobos Will Find it Decidedly to Their Advantage to Quit This Section.

The numerous delegations of crooks The numerous delegations of crooks, thieves, burglars, highwaymen, criminals and hobos of all degrees that have come to town during the last few days, principally from Butte, where they were afraid of being strung up, lay pretty low yesterday, most of them camping in the bushes on the outskirts of town. A majority of them had walked from Butte and they wanted to rest up. It is also probable that they were afraid to show themselves in town in daylight, preferring to sneak in in town in daylight, preferring to sneak in under cover of the night and ply the ir trade of stealing. Chief of Police Fagan and Constable Stebbins stumbled upon one gang of eight yesterday forenoon near the park. All

Chief of Police Fagan and Constable Stebbins stumbled upon one gang of eight yesterday forenoon near the park. All were asleep. They had two quart bottles of alcohol, which, after the manner of their kind, they drink more or less diluted with water. The officers gave the men their choice of working in the chain gang on the streets or getting out of town forthwith. They preferred the latter alternative and were escorted by the officers to the castern outskirts, of the city and started down the railroad track. They were about as tough a looking lot as one could imagine, but they were only a fair sample of the many other gaugs now infesting the city and its suburbs.

The audacity of these fellows is beyond a parallel. John Hinds was sleeping soundly at the Merrimac house yesterday afternoon when a bold Butte burglar strolled into his room and gathered up all the clothes he could carry, walked down stairs and out the front door, and started across the creek. Twenty men, sitting in front of the house, witnessed his nervy act, and one of them finally started after the thief. Chief Fagan appeared on the scene a moment later and joined in the chase. The vag forded the creek and go on one of the many miniature islands formed by the high-rolling creek and refused to leave it. Finally the chief got a plank, walked across on it, nabbed his man and brought him to the city jail.

The police are constantly on the alert, and so also are the citizens. It will not be safe for the toughs to stay in Anaconda or anywhere in its vicinity, and the sooner they realize it the better. If any bad break is made in this town at present, the consequences will be swift and certain.

Yesterday afternoon Chief Fagan arrested a hobo with a quantity of clothes in his possession. He had probably stolen them from a clothes line, as they seemed to have been recently washed. They include a pair of stockings. The owner can recover his property by calling on the chief.

A NOTABLE AMUSEMENT EVENT. So'omon, His Temple, and the Queen of John Robinson's ever-popular and ever-welcome shows come to us this year with such important accessions and augmenta-tions as to overshadow all contemporary amusement ventures. They have not only materially strengthened their ring and hippodrome performances and largely added to their already vast menagerie, but are producing an astounding new feature, which can but commend itself to all classes of patrons. We allude to the grand biblical spectacle of "Solomon, his Temple, and the Queen of Shoba." Unerring in historical accuracy, faithful in scenic delineation, realistic in depiction of incidents and events, impressively grand in pageantic effects, magnificent in costumes and appointments, entrancing in musical fea-tures, bewitching in beautiful ballets, and exciting in games and chariot races, this unprecedentedly sublime spectacle will commend itself to every visitor, as a contrast to this notably artistic production, and for the especial identification and delight of the younger members of the audience, the mirth-provoking and ever-acceptable pantomime of "Humpty-Dumpty, His Fortunes, Misfortunes and Mishaps," will find place in the programme of the Robinson show, and will be presented by an unexceptionable company of specially engaged skilled and comic pantomimists, and replete with new, original and highly diverting tricks, tranformations and surprises. The show will exhibit at Anaconda on July 7. exciting in games and chariot races, this tranformations and surprises. Th will exhibit at Anaconda on July 7.

House in Cincinnati. The Miller Brothers' production of the Parisian spectacle, "Kajanka," was witnessed by two very large audiences at Heuck's, says the Cincinnati Enquirer. It is but just to say at once that this presentation is, in no sense, to be compared with that of the same piece last season. The personnel of the organization, the specialties, the perfection of detail throughout have all undergone a change as thorough and complete as though the wand of the Good Fairy had really been applied to their condition when last seen here. As it stands to-day, "Kajanka" is incomparably better thany anything of a similar character witnessed in this country in years. The costuming is extremely beautiful, the score or more of young ladies present an unusually fine appearance, and their dancing is delightfully graceful and pretty. Of the cast Miss Kate Billingham, a new European transportation, achieved signal success as Beelzebub. Miss Bellingham's superb stage presence, splendid singing voice and her refinement of manner left an impression that will make her a favorite in this city, and secure to our stage in general a valuable acquisition in the line of parts to which she is peculiarly adapted. Florence Morrison met the requirements of the role of the Good Fairy.

BILLINGS, June 24.—Unlike the delegates from Montana, the democracy of Yellowstone were for Cleveland from the first, and consequently the news of his nomination, which reached here about 3 a. m. Thursday, was received with every demonstration of delight. Some enthusiastic democrats who sat up all night with their cars to the ground to hear the news quickly aroused the citizens with a fusilade and grand display of fireworks. No other nomination could have so well pleased the people down this way.

Our farmers and stock growers are evincing a lively interest in the Yellowstone Fair association, and the first exhibition to be held early in October will be a great occasion.

The city authorities are about to build a jail for the confinement of violators of city ordinances, drunks, tramps, etc. The disputes and kicking about the selection of a site has been quite prounced.

The Yellowstone has outdone its record this year, being some feet higher than ever known since the time Colonel Sanders and Sitting Bull set out the sage brush. It was over nine feet higher than low water mark last Wednesday, since which time the water has been subsiding.

The Fascination of the Cornet.

From the New York Sun. There is a curious fascination about the cornet, and among the amateurs who perform upon that instrument are men whom you would never dream of as being addicted to cornet playing. The leading amateur of our neighborhood and a very charming player he is, too, is a successful business man in the city, who I have no doubt was more pleased the first time he struck the high note in "The Last Rose of Summer" than he ever was by a good season's trade.
